at the research group for Agricultural and Food Market Research

(Prof. Dr. Monika Hartmann)

You are eager to contribute to exciting projects that aim to make the food system more sustainable while gaining valuable experience in scientific research? Then joining our research group is the perfect opportunity for you! We are currently seeking enthusiastic support for two of our projects.

Your responsibilities include:

- Literature research on project-relevant topics
- Assistance with the preparation and follow-up of scientific studies
- Support for project-related events

You possess:

- Extensive knowledge acquired through a degree in the field of agricultural and food economics, psychology, social sciences or related fields
- Good skills of literature research
- Very good German and English skills, teamwork ability, initiative, and attention to detail
- Strong interest in agricultural and food-related topics

Compensation is based on the rates of the University of Bonn (approximately 8 hours per week)

Please send your application (cover letter, CV, transcript of records) via e-mail to:
